Portfolio description

This portfolio looks to achieve capital growth in excess of inflation, whilst supporting inclusive economic development by investing in more environmentally and socially sustainable business practices. The portfolio will look to do this by investing in a diversified range of funds, which allocate capital to sustainable themes, such as healthcare and social housing, financial inclusion and education, the circular economy and renewable energy. The portfolio is diversified across a range of asset classes with a medium allocation to funds investing in equities (expected to be no greater than 100%) and other risk assets. Target volatility: 10% - 15.9%.

United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

Portfolio pillar mapping

As part of the LGT Wealth Management Sustainable Model Portfolio Service, we have developed four sustainable investment pillars. These pillars encompass investment themes and the related the United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDG), which they aim to support. Two of the pillars target social themes and two target environmental themes. This allows the translation of a framework based on a global, wide-reaching social and environmental change into an investable universe of ideas.

Our sustainable investment pillars

In order to better understand the thematic exposure of the portfolios, we have aligned the underlying funds to our sustainable pillars.

Key

■ Healthcare and societal wellbeing	55%
■ Financial inclusion and education	3%
■ Circular economy and resources	8%
■ Climate and Environmental action	34%

Monthly investment update

Global equities advanced again in September, with the S&P 500 and MSCI World hitting highs as the rally widened from tech to cyclical names such as industrials and financials. Resilient earnings and hopes of easier monetary policy keep a constructive tone, yet rich valuations and policy related risks shadow the outlook.

In the US, inflation sits above the Fed's target. A rate cut is expected soon, but the stimulus effect may be blunted by a swelling fiscal deficit and the higher yields now demanded by bond investors, underscoring the Fed's delicate task of fostering growth without eroding confidence in Treasury markets. The UK faces the stiffest inflation in the G7 at nearly 4%. Elevated fuel costs and wage demands are hobbling disinflation, and the Bank of England seems inclined to keep rates unchanged at least until November's fiscal statement. Cooling labour data and weaker business sentiment add to caution. Continental Europe is calmer, with inflation near the ECB's 2% goal, yet governments are tweaking issuance plans to keep borrowing costs contained, signalling that fiscal sustainability concerns are growing.

Looking ahead, risks persist but the backdrop remains favourable: equity markets have proved resilient and central banks appear ready to buttress growth with looser policy. Portfolios of firms with solid balance sheets, pricing power and reliable cash flows should be best equipped for the next leg of the cycle.
